To Whom it may concern:

I would like to strongly object to the terms of settlement in the DOJ/Microsoft case. This was a total capitulation on the part of the DOJ where Microsoft was clearly shown to be in violation of anti-trust practices. It is now up to the state attorneys general to correct this miscarriage of justice.

It is vital that the American judicial system sends a strong message to Microsoft, and any multi-national corporation that involves itself in unscrupulous and unlawful behavior that such conduct is unacceptable.
